

YOUR ITINERARY

Givry - Charnay-les-Mâcon (65 km)

Chalon-Givry section: work ends in 2007.

Km 0 Givry. Curious church with domes and semi-domes, corn exchange, elegant town hall (18C), beautiful fountains, etc.

Km 9 Buxy. Former station now the Tourist Office; charming little town with remains of fortifications, old winegrowers' houses, wine museum.

Km 19 Etiveau. Viaduct in the village and vineyards.

Km 23 Saint-Gengoux-le-National. Characteristic old railway station and little medieval town with remarkable fortified houses, towers, bartizans, stairways, ramparts, etc.

Km 28 Malay. Delightful Romanesque church (former priory of Cluny).

Km 31 Cormatin. Renaissance château (superb Louis XIII interior, grand staircase in an open well, English garden), Cycle Museum (5000 exhibits), remarkable works of religious art in the church.

Km 35 Taizé. Pretty traditional village atop a hill, ecumenical community.

Km 44 Cluny. Benedictine abbey, medieval town, Museum of Art and Archaeology, National Stud, sweeping views from the Tour des Fromages.

Km 49 Le Bois Clair. Climb towards the old railway tunnel, converted into a voie verte, separating the Clunisois and Mâconnais regions; the longest voie verte tunnel in Europe (1.6 km).

Km 52 Berzé-le-Châtel. Gateway to the Val lamartinién (Vale of Lamartine), medieval castle.

Km 57 La Roche-Vineuse. Wine village of Saint-Sorlin, archaeological site of the quarries of La Lie.

Km 62 Prissé. Flower-bedecked villages, traditional Mâconnais buildings (houses with galleries, dovecotes, etc.).

Km 65 Charnay-les-Mâcon. At the western edge of Mâcon, point of departure for excursions to Solutré and the vineyards of Pouilly and Saint-Véran.

THE VOIE BLEUE

Mâcon - Fleurville (17 km)

Km 0 Mâcon. (near "Le Poisson d'Or" restaurant) Cycling alongside the Saône has become a real pleasure since the recent creation of the Voie Bleue. Rest areas with tables will soon be available along the itinerary. Extensive tree-logging and pruning work has opened up new vistas of the Saône.

Km 17 Fleurville. A tourist centre is scheduled to open in 2008 in the old Fleurville gravel pit.
